Thoughts on Day 1:

After I had entered about five of the entries, I realized there was an issue. The first day had only eight games and had a playoff favourite playing a non-playoff favourite. As a result, almost everybody had the same teams picked to win, although they all had wagered different amounts (see predicted stat printouts). If Manitoba had beaten Northern Ontario, there would have been a 13-way tie for first place with 36 points. As it stands, Larry Racette wagered the least on that game and was the clear top point getter. A special nod goes out to Janice Partridge (one of only two women entered), who, if the last game on the ice had gone the other way would have been the clear and sole winner of Day 1.

There are 26 entries this year. That means the total pot is $520 this year.

The total available every day is $$31.20 \times 6 = \187.20

- First overall will get $130.00
- Second overall will get $78.00
- Third overall will get $52.00
- Fourth overall will get $41.60
- Fifth overall will get $31.20

Remember, there will be no tie-breakers, the pots will be split evenly
